

Mitsuru Kawai
Executive Vice President
Toyota Motor Corporation

- Supervisor of plants across in-house companies
- Chief Officer , Safety & Health Promotion Division

Mitsuru Kawai was born January 2, 1948. He graduated from Toyota Technical Skills Academy in March 1966 and joined Toyota Motor Corporation (TMC) in March the same year.

Mr. Kawai was appointed project general manager of the Forging Division of the Honsha Plant in January 2005, and in June the same year he became general manager of the division. In January 2008, he was made a deputy plant manager of the Honsha Plant. In January 2013, Mr. Kawai was made a senior technical executive. In April 2015, he became senior managing officer and, executive vice president of the Unit Center and deputy chief officer of the Vehicle Production Engineering & Manufacturing Group. In April 2016, he was appointed as supervisor of plants across the in-house companies. In April 2017, he was made executive vice president, and also became chief officer of the Safety & Health Promotion Division.