

Osamu Nagata
Member of the Board of Directors
Toyota Motor Corporation

Osamu Nagata was born on March 2, 1957. He graduated from the University of Tokyo with a bachelor's degree in economics in March 1980 and joined Toyota Motor Corporation (TMC) in April the same year.

Mr. Nagata was seconded to Toyota Motor Manufacturing North America, Inc. (now Toyota Motor Engineering & Manufacturing North America, Inc.) in January 2000. In January 2007, he became the division general manager of the Miyoshi Plant Administration Division at TMC. In June 2009, he was made managing officer, and was appointed plant manager of the Miyoshi and Tahara Plants. Mr. Nagata became a deputy chief officer of the External Affairs Group in April 2011. In April 2013, he was made senior vice president of Toyota Motor North America, Inc. (TMA), and a president and chief executive officer of Toyota Motor Engineering & Manufacturing North America, Inc. In April 2015, he became a senior managing officer of TMC, chief administrative officer (CAO) of the North America Region, as well as executive vice president. In April 2017, Mr. Nagata was made an executive vice president of TMC, and became chief financial officer. In June 2017, he was appointed a member of the board of directors, and also remained an executive vice president. As of January 2018, he resigned from his post as executive vice president, but remained as a member of the board of directors.