

Masanori Kuwata
Operating Officer & Executive Vice President
Toyota Motor Corporation

- Chief Risk Officer
- Chief Compliance Officer
- Chief Human Resources Officer

Masanori Kuwata was born on March 4, 1970. He graduated from Osaka University with a bachelor's degree in economics in March 1992, and joined Toyota Motor Corporation (TMC) in April of the same year.

In January 2018, Mr. Kuwata was appointed general manager of Toyota Institute. In January 2019, he became deputy chief officer of General Administration & Human Resources Group.

In April 2019, he became general manager of Secretarial Division. He continued concurrently serving as deputy chief officer of General Administration & Human Resources Group.

In April 2020, he was promoted to operating officer and became chief officer of General Administration & Human Resources Group.

In July 2020, he became chief human resources officer of TMC.

In September 2020, he was appointed chief officer of Business Development Group and general manager of New Business Planning Division. In January 2021, he was appointed chief planning officer.

In April 2022, he was appointed executive vice president, and became chief risk officer and chief compliance officer.