

Yoshihiro Onomura

General Manager
Planning & Administration Dept.
Hybrid Vehicle Engineering Management Div.
Toyota Motor Corporation

[Biography]

With a background in engine development, and corporate planning, including service in Toyota Motor Europe Marketing and Engineering, Mr. Onomura has been engaged in hybrid systems development including battery units among others since 2004. Currently he is responsible for the planning and management of the development of hybrid powertrain systems.

[Date of Birth]

November 1, 1959

[Education]

March 1985 Master's degree in Engineering, University of Tokyo

[Brief Career]

April 1985	Joined Toyota Motor Corporation
November 1985	Assigned to Engine Design Dept. No.22
January 1992	Assistant Manager, Automatic Transmission Engineering Dept. No.1
January 1999	General Manager, Product Design Div. 2 Toyota Motor Europe Marketing and Engineering SV
January 2003	Project General Manager, Corporate Planning Div.
September 2004	Project General Manager, Hybrid Vehicle System Engineering Div.
January 2007	General Manager, Hybrid System Planning & Administration Dept. Hybrid Vehicle System Engineering Div.
Jun 2008	General Manager, Planning & Administration Dept. Hybrid Vehicle Engineering Management Div.
January 2010	General Manager, Hybrid Vehicle Battery Unit Development Div.
January 2014	General Manager, Planning & Administration Dept. Hybrid Vehicle Engineering Management Div.